

Mission and Vision

The mission of The Global Volunteer Partnership is to meet the resource needs of America's skilled volunteers, nonprofits and companies seeking to have measurable impact on global challenges such as poverty, illiteracy, and disease.

Our vision is to become the leading catalyst for efforts by these skilled volunteers, nonprofits and companies to improve lives around the world.

About The Global Volunteer Partnership

The Global Volunteer Partnership is a 501 (c)(3) organization that is developing resources to enable skilled American volunteers and US nonprofits and companies to contribute to global development through projects targeting economic growth, education, health, the environment, information technology and agriculture. These resources will:

- Help skilled Americans find and afford relevant volunteer service opportunities abroad
- Help nonprofits to recruit and deploy more skilled volunteers
- Inform the public on the vital roles of skilled volunteers in addressing global problems
- Assist companies in efforts to involve or strengthen the participation of their employees in volunteer service abroad
- Encourage Americans and US organizations unable to participate directly in volunteer service abroad to support the mission of The Global Volunteer Partnership with financial and in-kind contributions

The Global Volunteer Partnership is managed by a team with significant experience in government, business and philanthropy that is dedicated to supporting and promoting the efforts of America's skilled volunteers, nonprofits and companies to change the lives of those in need throughout the world.
